

Club	Description
Art	Small group experiences with different art forms then in class. Art trips to Art Museums followed by an art activity.
Band Tutoring	Band tutoring is an after school opportunity for students to receive one-on-one help on their instrument. It is also an opportunity to practice outside of school for those that cannot take their instruments home or cannot practice at home. Meets every Wednesday.
Business Professionals of America	Students will collaborate to compete against other middle schools on the state and national level in the areas of business, marketing, finance and technology.
Math League	Students get to compete against other schools using their math skills to solve challenging problems. Extraordinary teams and individuals will also have an opportunity to compete at the state Math League Meet!
National Junior Honor Society	The National Junior Honor Society is established to recognize outstanding middle level students. More than just an honor roll, NJHS serves to honor those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of service, leadership, character, and citizenship. Membership in NJHS distinguishes students who have committed themselves to the pursuit of academic excellence, community improvement, and personal development. NJHS members participate in community service projects, attend leadership events, and serve as ambassadors to their schools and communities.
Newspaper	Newspaper club is an academic club that all students can join. "The Falcon Quarterly" is distributed four times a year with current information on Stanton happenings and current news. We meet every other Tuesday.
Student Council	To provide leadership and a voice for the middle school, plan projects, and participate in community and school events.
TSA(Technology Student Association)	TSA is a student run organization where students from schools around the nation compete in technology related events in state and national levels.
Yearbook	Students will collaborate to design and create the 2016-2017 Stanton Middle School Yearbook. Members of the club will assist with picture days through the school year as well.
