

Dear Red Clay Community,

As we prepare to gather with loved ones this Thanksgiving, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for each of you—our students, families, educators, and staff—who make our school district a vibrant and inspiring community.

Every day I witness your dedication, compassion, and resilience as we work together to ensure our students receive the opportunities and support they need to thrive. From classrooms filled with curiosity to events that unite us as neighbors, your commitment to our collective success is truly inspiring.

This season reminds us of the power of gratitude and connection. I am thankful for the partnerships we've built, the challenges we've overcome, and the bright future we continue to shape together. Each of you is essential in creating a learning environment where students feel seen, valued, and empowered.

May this Thanksgiving bring you moments of joy, reflection, and togetherness. Whether you are celebrating with family, friends, or your school community, I hope your holiday is filled with warmth and peace.

Sincerely,

Dr. Dorrell Green
Superintendent of Schools
Red Clay Consolidated School District
