

SchoolChoiceDE.org Acceptance Process

General Information

- Districts/schools will notify you no later than the last day in February of your invitation status.
- You have until the 3rd Friday in March to make a decision.
- If you have multiple invitations, you will only be able to accept to one school. Once this is done, all other applications will be withdrawn or declined.
- If you are not planning to accept any invitations, then you should decline the invitation in order to provide this notification to the district/school.
- If you are placed on a waiting list, that list will be maintained until the first day of the applying school year, even if you accept an invitation to another school.
